Orcutt, CA, August 17, 2009 – Insight Management CEO Sees Uptrend in Natural Gas Well Servicing

Insight Management Corporation (OTC BB: ISIM) President and CEO, Jennifer Rapacki, today commented on positive trends in the domestic natural gas services market. “While existing natural gas wells continue to demand maintenance, new drilling activity should create added demands for service,” Ms. Rapacki noted. “We are now seeing an increase in leasing activity and are very encouraged about how that will translate into higher revenues for service companies like ours in the remainder of this year.”

Natural Gas well servicing is a core driver of revenue for Insight’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Rebel Testing, Inc. (RTI). RTI continues to see increased demand for its services, according to Ms. Rapacki.
